Vol. VI. St. Joseph's College, June 10, 1914. No. 18.

All Stars 9—Mt. Ayr 5.

Mt. Ayr emptied itself into Collegeville Sunday afternoon, determined to avenge themselves upon the All Stars for the defeat administered to them on their home grounds Decoration Day. Jack Annen whom the Ayrites dethroned from the slab on the holiday was again on the mound and kept the hits well scattered. The game was not featured by any superb fielding, but hard hitting in the final rounds added a little snap. Murphy figured prominently in a batting rally in the eighth when he doubled with three on. The score:

SENIOR LEAGUE.

PHILLIES 10—GAINTS 5.

May 25. The Phillies sprung a surprise into the Senior League by running away with the leaders. They began their scoring in the first round by putting four of the first five men across the plate and Meyers began the second round by scoring another run. In the meantime Becker held the Giants down; however in the fourth they broke ground and knocked in two runs. The Phillies in order to take no chances added four more runs in their half of the fourth and two was the most the Giants could score in the fifth. Ambos featured with a home run clout with three men on base. Meyers, Maher and DeJaco handled the stick well.

Phillies	5	1	0	4	0	10	5	6
Giants	0	0	2	1	2	5	3	7

Batteries—Becker and Breen.—Schall and Hellen.

PIRATES 9—CARDINALS 3

June 1. The Cardinals excelled the Pirates again when they tripled the score over Lynch's team. Undaunted by two outs, Dues in the second round mounted the pan and smashed out a single, going to second on an overthrow and to third on McLaughlin's hit and both advancing on Ossege's drive that was fumbled at short. Murphy walked and scored on Lynch's hit, the latter also tallied by some clever base running. Thus they piled up five runs making it nine and by holding the Cardinals close they easily won. McLaughlin and Lynch greatly assisted the Pirates with the stick.

PHILLIES 3—CARDINALS 2.

May 28. Through the excellent pitching of Farrel and his good support the Phillies gained a close victory over the Cardinals. The game was in doubt until the last man was put out. Willie Murphy started things a stirring for the Phillies in the second by reaching first on an error, Howard followed and did the same; a stolen base, two errors and a sacrifice hits scored both. Meyers long drive to the road featured.

PHILLIES 1—GIANTS 2

May 29—In a close five inning fray which was practically a pitchers' battle Schall's team won out. Both mound men held the hits well scattered: however, the Giants received a pass and scored on McJaffrey's drive and the latter scored on Fettig's single. Becker and Schwartz divided honors evenly, both having seven strike outs

Giants	0	2	0	0	0	2	3	3

CARDINALS 3—GIANTS 1.

June 3—In what seemed to be a sure victory for the Giants was turned into a defeat in the last inning by the timely hitting of Beckman, Delor and Gabel. Gabel made a fine showing in the Senior league for his initial appearance. Schwartz and Kanney showed form in twirling.

Cardinals	0	0	1	0	2	3	1	0
Giants	0	0	0	1	0	1	2	3

Phillies 4—Pirates 2.

June 4—The Phillies took another victory from the Pirates thus making their fourth straight McGinn was the first to circuit the bags and Smith followed him in rapid succession through the Pirates' loose playing. If the Pirates backed Lynch in the field like they did with the stick the result might have been different. Dues got a couple of two baggers and made both runs for the team.

PIRATES 10 — GIANTS 7.

June 6.—The Pirates kept up their great work and forced the slipping Giants to quit first place in the pennant race. The Phillies scored three runs in the third, fourth and the fifth inn- ing. Silverstein was the master of the situation after he replaced Schwartz on the mound. In the fifth Farley and Schall were the batting stars the former getting three doubles and a single while Schall was good for two singles and a triple.

WHITE SOX 18 — NAPS 19.

May 23. — The White Sox showed their superiority over the Naps in a slugging fest which resulted in the score of 19-18. It seemed as if the Sox would never quit scoring in the sixth when they hit the ball and where forced around the bases by the free passes of Ambos. Voelkers and Ambos each gathered two two baggers and a single.

Few Collegeville fans who witnessed Sunday's encounter with the mountain air boys knew that Tom Corbett, the sly scout for the Milwaukee Brewers, was in the stand. Tom was so much impressed with the work of second sacker Wright that he immediately made him an offer after the game. Wright said there was nothing like trying, and will probably sign up articles with Corbett in Chicago Wednesday. Corbett was much impressed also with first base-man, Carter's work, but thought he is not quite ripe for the big show.

Vacation Next.

This is the last issue of the "Cheer" for the year 1913-14. Taking a general glance backward over the school year, every student must say that it was a most agreeable one, with only one dark spot, the Gym disaster. However discouraging this was at the time, there is nothing that is more encouraging to next year 'hopefuls' than the plans for a new and better Gym. St. Joseph's made great strides toward a greater St. Joseph's this year, thanks to the Faculty, and there is no reason why the ideal should not be approached nearer next year.

To touch a lighter and more specific subject, athletics have been a grand success this spring. The Varsity made a better impression on the road than any representative team has in five years. This was largely due to the fact that the men kept in training. We are sorry that we cannot announce all the league champions. Kuhn's Nap's pennant hopes have materialized and the junior league pennant is theirs. Schall's Giants, after keeping the lead in the senior league, are now back on equal footing with the Pirates, and the Cardinals are not altogether out of the race. This week's games must decide. As to Doc Pirola's outlaw organization, the Balfeds are the only team that is out of the running.

And, while summing up the Spring record we must not overlook the successful work of a new project, the Track Team.

Base ball should be very secondary these days. We have arrived at the huge wall standing between the frontiers of the school year and vacation. The graduates have already scaled the walls (some a bit crippled) and it is up to the under rank men to accomplish the same feat as successfully. Now one supreme effort, and then the satisfaction of Commencement day.

A word of thanks to all our Professors, and a happy vacation to every student of St. Joseph's.

LOCALS.

DeJaco—Why is the Varsity baseball team like a locomotive?

Luetkemeyer—"You've got me."

DeJaco—"Because it has a cow catcher."

Schaeper—"Have you seen anything of Ernst?"

Fecher—"No, not even a shadow."

Says Angus:—"This town is so slow that the April showers are glad to get around by the last of May."
